Louisiana Seafood CSF: Support Our Local Fishers during Lent

Sign up to get the freshest catch March 10 - April 21, 2011

The Crescent City Farmers Market is offering a new Community Supported Fisheries program (CSF) during Lent this year.

- Pay in advance for one or more "shares" of Pete & Clara Gerica's catch during Lent.
- Each $20 weekly share is enough for dinner for two adults (plus lagniappe).
- Pick up your fresh-caught Louisiana seafood between 3-7 p.m. at the Thursday Mid-City Crescent City Farmers Market (American Can parking lot).

It's perfect timing for Lenten Friday fish fries, shrimp boils, seafood poboys, Creoles & Gulf Coast cooking. Weekly shares may include drum or sea bream fillets, head-on shrimp, hand-peeled shrimp or crabmeat.

Our Crescent City Supported Fisheries program is a great way to help Louisiana's fishing families and communities while you enjoy tasty local seafood. But don't delay - the number of shares is limited.

Cost:

weekly shares (dinner for 2, plus lagniappe): $20

or

7-week subscription (1 share/week): $100 (a $40 savings!)

Pick Up Location:

Crescent City Farmers Market — Mid-City, 3700 Orleans Ave. (American Can Co., at the Bayou), 3-7pm
